Tóm tắt

With over 2 years of experience as a Business Analyst cum Product Owner,

My journey has centered on bridging the gap between data-driven insights and business needs, bringing valuable solutions to life.

I pride myself on strong analytical thinking, excellent communication skills, and collaborating effectively with diverse stakeholders to uncover key information. Adaptability, a growth mindset, and a determination to work smart and persevere are the core qualities I bring to every challenge. I am committed to continuous professional development, expanding my expertise in data and technology to stay ahead in my field and deliver even greater value.
